SOCIO- ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED GROUPS CELL (SEDGS)

The SEDGs Cell aims to safeguard the constitutional rights of students from Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups and ensure an inclusive, safe, and discrimination-free campus. It focuses on providing academic, socio-emotional, and psychological support through counselling, mentoring, orientation, and bridge courses. The Cell ensures effective implementation of government and UGC policies, reservation norms, welfare schemes, and outreach programmes to enhance participation of SEDGs in academic life. It also facilitates awareness, monitoring, and timely redressal of grievances while maintaining dignity, privacy, and safety of students

The SEDGs Cell functions as a single-window support system for SEDGs students by coordinating with institutional cells and statutory bodies to implement scholarships, fellowships, and welfare schemes. It provides academic, financial, emotional, and career-oriented support, promotes skill development and employability, and ensures sensitization of faculty, staff, and students on inclusion and equity. The Cell monitors outreach programmes, grievance redressal, safety measures, and policy implementation, maintains relevant data, mobilizes resources through CSR and alumni, and ensures time-bound resolution of grievances with a zero-tolerance approach towards discrimination.
