Makar Sankranti Celebration

Introduction:

Makar Sankranti is a Hindu festival celebrated on the occasion of the planet sun travelling into Makar Rashi. Makar Sankranti is a festival, celebrated with grandeur and enthusiasm, holds great religious significance in Hindu religion. On this day, Lord Surya moves from Sagittarius to Capricorn zodiac sign. Makar Sankranti festival is celebrated across the country with different names in different cities following their own amazing traditions and rituals.

One of the most common attractions of Poush Sankranti, especially in the Gujarat region, is kite flying. The sound of 'Kai Po Che' against the lip-smacking sweets laid out on the terrace is almost an involuntary visual that comes to mind when thinking of Makar Sankranti. It is also believed that the kite-flying ritual came into play as a practice of good health. The idea was to expose oneself to the first light of the early morning forthcoming Summer sun and douse in the goodness of Vitamin D.

Event Overview:

1. Event Objectives:

• To celebrate this great event with mark of females getting involved in some fun activity together

• To reduce the stress and burst into joy of laughter.

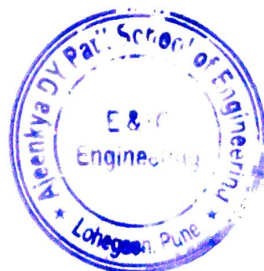

• To make the exchange of vermillion and sweetness of til gul.

Event Contents:

Exploring Self-Esteem for all Girl Students

Details of the event:

The "Asmita Self-Esteem Event" organized by the Department of Artificial Intelligence and Data Science Engineering aimed to empower and uplift female students. The event was designed to focus on enhancing self-esteem and confidence among girls. It included a variety of activities and workshops tailored to address issues related to self-esteem, personal development, and empowerment.

Participants engaged in interactive workshops and discussions aimed at boosting self-esteem and personal development. From self-awareness exercises to assertiveness training, the workshops provided practical tools and strategies for building confidence and overcoming challenges.

As the event concluded, there was a palpable sense of empowerment and camaraderie among the participants. Armed with newfound confidence and a supportive network, the attendees left the "Asmita Self-Esteem Event" with a renewed sense of purpose and determination to excel in their chosen fields.

Events' Central Principles-

1. Financial Literacy:

Financial literacy is a critical skill for navigating the complexities of modern life, yet girls often face unique challenges and barriers in developing this competency. Recognizing the importance of equipping girls with the knowledge and skills to make informed financial decisions, the Financial Literacy for Girls program was established.

The Financial Literacy for Girls program aims to achieve on the topics like - what is share, IPO, Mutual funds, starting your career with SIP, dangers for falling for the investment traps and many more. each topic specified in depth and precise manner. They also defined how to manage your investments and the units representing the ownerships which will be worthy or not.

2. Mental Health:

Mental health is a critical aspect of overall well-being, yet girls often face unique challenges and stressors that can impact their emotional and psychological health. Recognizing the importance of addressing these issues proactively, the Mental Health for Girls program was developed.

Having the self-care schedule, healthy life-style, balanced diet, quality sleep, physical activities are the build in fundamentals which every girl must put in compulsory. Live life in the positive environment, don't be afraid to say no, exercise your brain abilities, engage in your hobbies, read more learn more and many more elements inculcated.

3. Self Defense:

Safety and empowerment are essential components of girls' well-being. In many contexts, girls face the risk of violence and harassment, making it crucial to equip them with self-defense skills. Recognizing this need, the Self-Defense for Girls program was developed to provide girls with the knowledge, confidence, and practical skills to protect themselves and assert their boundaries.

The objectives were everyday self-defense tools, how to conduct yourself when you are the passengers, elevator safety, safety while walking, party safety, emergency helplines, effective attack points, social media influence. From being the sensational entity on the earth to be the most powerful personality, this made the strong impact one each and every girl sitting over there.

4. Be Tech-Savvy:

In an increasingly digital world, proficiency in technology is essential for success in education, careers, and everyday life. However, girls often face barriers to accessing and excelling in STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) fields. Recognizing the importance of bridging this gap, the Be Tech Savvy for Girls program was developed.

The overview was to be beneficial with the tech world. Informed more about the benefits of the ChatGPT, Digi-Locker, adding nominees and personal documents on the drive, verification and analysis of the frauds, digital signature, government integration and lot more.

Conclusion:

The Girls' Self-Esteem Program has proven to be a transformative and impactful initiative in empowering girls to cultivate positive self-esteem and thrive in all aspects of their lives. Through a comprehensive approach that combines psychoeducation, skill-building activities, peer support, mentorship, and community engagement, the program has successfully addressed the multifaceted factors that contribute to low self-esteem among girls.

Department of Computer Engineering of Ajeenkya D.Y.Patil School of Engineering, Lohegaon, Pune organized a Webinar on Gender Sensitization

Dr. Pankaj Agarkar H.O.D. of Computer Engineering department had given the introduction about the speaker Dr. Shilpi Agarwal

Dr. Shilpi Agarwal began her addressal. She started with the basics of Gender sensitization, what is Gender sensitization, its need in today's world, and why its high time that workplaces start embracing Gender sensitivity effectively. Our biases and prejudices are unknown to us, and this is where Gender sensitization is required.

She discussed what kind of behavior promotes gender inequality, asked everybody to introspect their actions, because gender bias leads to a performance loss, absenteeism and stagnant growth of organization.

Gender sensitization means representation and acceptance of a person without being overshadowed by their gender. Gender sensitivity leads to voices being heard, which promotes holistic growth of everyone and the organization.

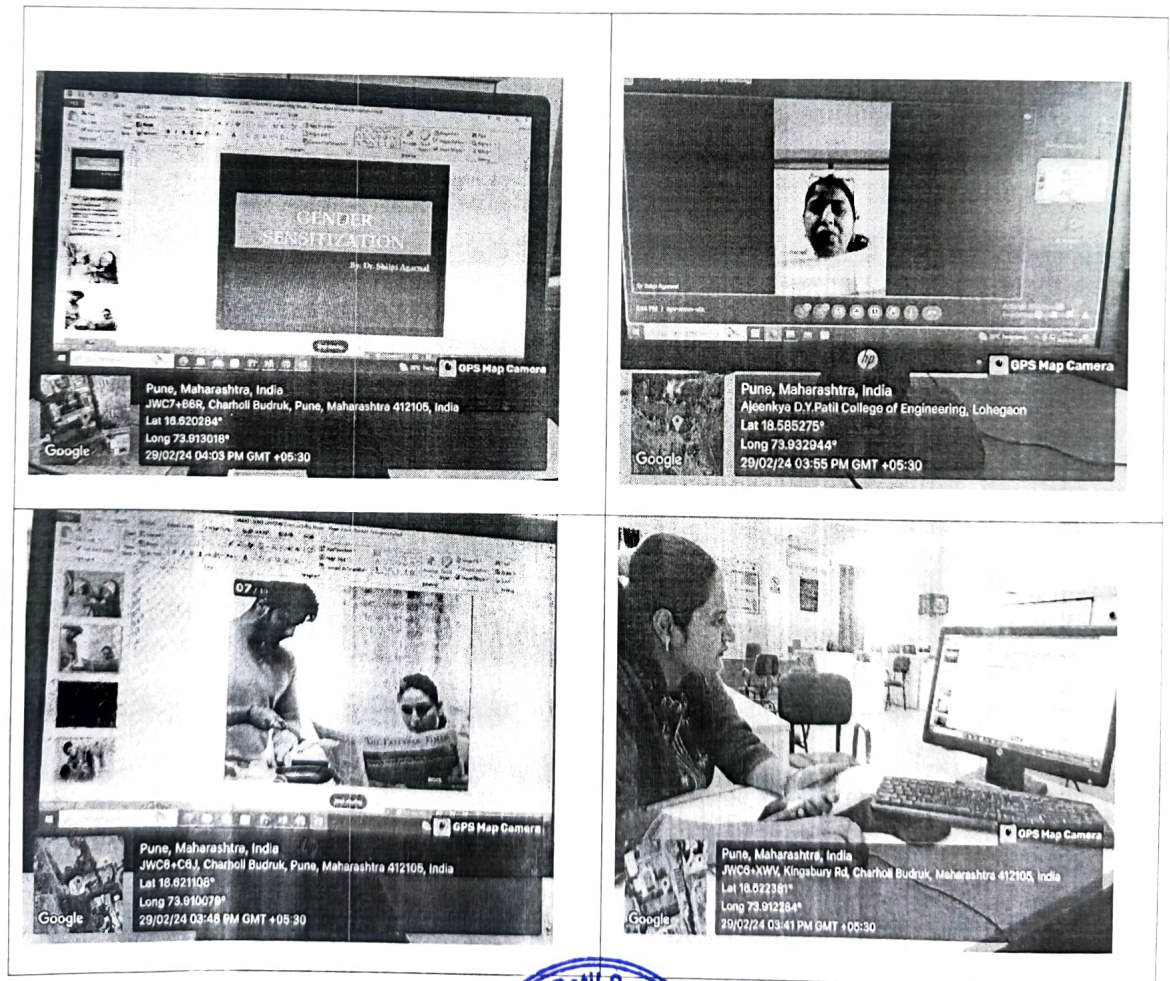

Principal
 Ajeenkya DY Patil School of Engineering, Lohegaon, Pune

Dr. Shilpi Agarwal mentioned that it is also important to distinguish between intention and behavior, if ill treatment of a co-worker is intentional it should be reported and action must be taken, but if it is an unconscious trait, then the person should be informed and communicated about their gender biased behavior. She continued that it is expected from each and every one to respect and be sensitive about every person in their environment regardless of their gender.

She also said that establishing better communication is the key to eradicating these issues. Gender sensitization promotes a positive and cohesive work environment with mutual respect for one another. Webinar was interactive and towards the end of the Webinar Dr. Shilpi Agarwal answered the questions raised by the audience.

Ajeenkya D. Y. Patil School of Engineering, Lohegaon, Pune conducted offline seminar on "A guest lecture on Panchayat Raj Day" for benefit of students on the occasion of Panchayat Raj Day.

Celebrating Panchayat Raj Day through a guest lecture is a wonderful way to honor the grassroots governance system of India. Begin by introducing the significance of Panchayat Raj Day. Mention that it is celebrated on April 24th every year, commemorating the passing of the Constitution (73rd Amendment) Act, 1992, which institutionalized Panchayati Raj institutions (PRIs) in India. The guest lecture on Panchayat Raj Day commenced with an introduction highlighting the significance of the occasion.

The presenter emphasized the importance of local self-governance in India's democratic framework and introduced the theme of the lecture, which aimed to delve into the evolution, functions, challenges, and success stories of Panchayati Raj institutions. The audience gained an understanding of how PRIs plan and implement government schemes and programs at the grassroots level, contributing to inclusive growth and community development. The presenter identified various challenges faced by Panchayati Raj institutions, including resource constraints, capacity-building issues, political interference, and social inequalities.

There was so much talent within students which shown interest for such program as it seen from students and guest question and answer session. My deepest gratitude to Director Dr. Kamaljeet Kaur, Principal Dr. F. B. Sayyad and HOD F.E. Dr. S.M. Khairnar for giving me such opportunity for benefiting all our students.
